Sirs-

I am strongly opposed to these invasive regulations that come from a commission that was, itself, a knee-jerk reaction to the TWA 800 crash.

We panicked into the new restrictions already in place at airports. If we go farther the terrorists win, because they succeed in reducing our liberties.

I urge you not to do this. Enforce the regulations and laws you have now. Enhance the technology used to screen baggage, but please do not resort to these new draconian measures.
